

they have antibodies. That does not mean they are ill. But propaganda, publicity... There is one thing that is contagious, it is the media contagion. People are made to believe things, money completely controls the media and they pass across what they want. And so, people are made to believe, it's a myth, that HIV positive = death, you will die and people die within 2 years. Why do they die?

One, because they think; they are told: you are going to die, it is mortal. If you are HIV-positive, you definitely have AIDS, and if you have AIDS, you will surely die. And so when I think I'm going to die, I die, I make it happen. You know, when we are afraid of something, we make it happen.

The second thing is that they are given treatments of terrible toxicity. AZT, which is a medicine that they brought out of the drawers, which was the proposed treatment of leukaemia they put forward several years ago, which was so toxic that they put aside; but they brought it out again because there was an emergency, there is "an illness", the "new", an epidemic. It's a lie from start to finish. I tell you this because most people still believe it's true.

I was in Amsterdam at the congress, I attended this congress where Gaston Naessens presented the video we saw earlier, which we saw excerpts. It was a very interesting congress which was organised by the sick and not by the industry. So we had the truth! There were patients who said: "I am HIV positive for 15 years and I'm still here!" So it's not true! But what makes people sick and what kills people is the drugs they are given.

In Africa. So it's important to see that AIDS was completely created, completely fabricated, completely propagated (media propaganda), and particularly in Africa. It is a targeted genocide. Africa is still dying of AIDS. There are countries where people die like flies because they are scared, and they are given tests that are false, tests that are completely untrue. It is sufficient in Africa for example, they call it the Bangui test or something like that, that one has three symptoms that are common to all endemic diseases they have, that's enough to say who is HIV positive and who has AIDS. But it's enormous, it's absolutely enormous. So I wanted to point out this enormity.

When Gaston Naessens made his presentation in Amsterdam at the AIDS Congress, he demonstrated, and it is important, by his Somatidian Theory, he clearly demonstrated that we could see microorganisms in the blood. You know, when it is said that it does not only make the first three, but after that one can see all other bacterial, bacterial and other forms, yeasts and other forms; it's somatid in the blood, which has never been seen by a doctor, there is never a doctor who has seen such a thing. But there are others, and you saw the enumeration afterwards. But ah, no no, it's artefacts, it's not true, it does not exist. And it's been since 1850, in the 50s that Béchamp had already seen that, he is a contemporary of Pasteur. We come back to our friend Pasteur. And Béchamp a contemporary of Pasteur, we know Pasteur but you have never heard of Béchamp! But no! Note that one does not become famous by rendering service to humanity! Fame comes in serving the industry, not humanity! It is important.

Gaston Naessens whom I know, who lives half an hour from here, who is a remarkable man. It has been said of him that he is a genius and a saint, a being truly of exceptional quality. He invented a microscope where one can see particles of blood in motion. Yes but what? Know that no electronic microscope sees live blood, it sees only dead blood. Medicine studies only death. So obviously they could never see somatids.

Somatids, what is a somatid? You know that little particle that could move. A somatid is the smallest particle of living matter. It is a condenser of energy for the substance which creates the link between the mind and the substance. It's immortal. A somatid is indestructible. Wait a minute, this is the most important thing in our body and it's impossible to see because we don't have the right to see live blood!

There were microscopes that could show live blood and there were reports, studies done in magazines. But you know, after a year, all the magazines of the year are collected and put together in a big volume, a huge thing, and bound. There was a gentleman who was interested in microscopes that could show live blood and he started going to bookstores in search, in the libraries to get document related to his topic and all the articles that talked about microscopes that were studying live blood had been removed. That had been removed, taken away altogether. What becomes of researchers?

May God bless you!

NEWS OF THE END TIMES

VACCINE: AN EXTREMELY DANGEROUS POISON N°1

Dear brothers and dear friends, we find it important to put at your disposal this triple testimony, which is in fact the extract from three small conferences, the first two given by Dr. Ghis and entitled The Medical Mafia: 20 years later, and The prohibited effective treatments, and the third given by Dr. Didier Tarte and entitled Dangers of an authoritarian medicine. These presentations are very clear, and it is rather unfortunate to notice that even with all this information, which is sufficiently clear and absolutely convincing, there are still people who accept to be poisoned, or who consent to the poisoning of their children by this extremely dangerous poison, called vaccine. It's really a pity!

One is always tempted to wonder why governments are still embarking on vaccination campaigns after all this information is known. But for you who have read our article entitled The truth about AIDS, which can be found on the website www.mcreveil.org, you should no longer be surprised. You now know very well who the people who govern us are. They are agents of lucifer who voluntarily and consciously sacrifice millions of people to satan, to accomplish their project of a new world order. They are demons in human forms; monsters whose only mission is to massacre the greatest number of people; vampires who live only on human blood; snakes that are happy only when they see the victims of their bites writhing in pain.

That's why they are slaughtering millions of people without moral qualms. Their extreme wickedness should no longer surprise you. Take note once and for all that you can only expect deadly bites and nothing else from poisonous snakes. Now, you will understand more easily the different abominable, incongruous and stupid decisions that these villains take. Also remember once and for all that these agents of Hell will never take a decision for your good. I mean, NEVER.

So, stop wondering whether the leaders of your countries are really aware of the pernicious and genocidal goal of vaccines. The answer is YES without any unambiguity. These demons have signed a pact with lucifer, to decimate the whole world, to transform men into zombies, into eternal sick persons, and into mere objects devoid of any ability to think. This is why they not only multiply vaccines, but they are even making them compulsory. They have made it an essential condition for the exercise of certain functions, for entry into certain countries, and for the enrolment of children in school.

For example, you cannot practice as a doctor or a nurse in several countries, without taking a number of vaccines. In other words, to work in a hospital as a caregiver, you must agree to be poisoned. To cross the immigration of several countries, especially in Africa, you must show a vaccination booklet. You must therefore accept to be poisoned to enter these countries. In many countries today, you cannot enrol your children in school until they are poisoned. These demons make this extremely destructive poison a real subject of blackmail. They make sure that you are unable to get around it. Do you still consider the world's decision makers innocent? They are not, and have never been. Just ask yourself why all these doctors who denounce this organised and planned genocide which is the vaccine, are either cold-bloodedly murdered or struck off from the medical order, for the luckiest ones.

This article is in two parts. We recommend that you read it completely. Good reading!

The Medical Mafia: 20 years later

I have always said to myself for years: I refuse to talk about vaccination. I wrote the medical mafia. Everything is there. I have nothing else to say. I cannot conceive that a human being with the minimum of intelligence would even ask himself whether or not he should be vaccinated. It's obvious: The vaccine is to transmit sickness to someone who is in good health. Common sense cannot accept such nonsense. Where is our common sense? That's enough already, you may not know all what Didier told us earlier, but that's enough.

Christian Mission for Revival. E-mail: mail@mcreveil.org <http://www.mcreveil.org>

Second: Immunisation decisions are made by the government. Do you trust the government? The government is not to be trusted. Why? Because we know that a politician is a liar, they are corrupt to the core. They are the ones who decide on vaccinations, and we go for it! More than that, it's done in environments where children are taken hostage in schools. And we go for it! We do it! It's a secret, what is in the vaccines. And we go there like fools stretching the arm, to get something that is designed by the industry. We are talking about multinationals whose sole purpose is to make profits endorsed by the state that receives its orders from the WHO, which are under the control of bankers with secret products, ... SECRETS! Does that not disturb you?

As far as I'm concerned, one of the three would be enough to make me make a decision. There are three that any fool can see. And we continue to get vaccinated? Not only has nothing changed since 1994, for 20 years, but it's far worse than it ever was. You saw that there were discussions on both sides: There were the for-vaccines and the against-vaccines. Those who are paid by the state were "for", and then others who are "neutral" and then those who want the good of the patients are "against." It's simple. Mark you, we only saw the 'for' and the 'against'. There is no more! There is no more! Why? What happened?

I am going to tell you; I experienced it personally: The media has been muzzled. What you saw as a movie, as a TV show, was a month before the medical mafia came out. I knew the vaccines at that time. I talked about it in the medical mafia, but nobody knew at that time that the medical mafia would come out. When the mafia came out, it caused a sensation. It went on newspapers! For 3 months I did not stop granting interviews on the radio, on television, in the newspapers until one day... everything came to a standstill! Not only did people who wanted to interview me say, "No, I cannot do it anymore", but they also withdrew and people started writing articles about me without interviewing me, thus completely demolishing the person. There is a saying that, "If you do not like the message, kill the messenger." I thus became the mad person, the nonentity, to discredit what I said. And since that time, everything ended. Nothing again ever came up on vaccination, and it's been 20 years!

When the medical mafia came out, I became aware at that time of the importance of vaccination. I knew there was something else behind vaccines, and I had written in the medical mafia that vaccines are not just the profit-making means for multinationals. I knew that vaccines were used for experimentation. Especially on the internet recently, Laval University has found it interesting to put nanoparticles in vaccines, and they test this on the population that receives the flu in Quebec this winter. You did not know, but if you have been vaccinated for the flu, you probably have nanoparticles. So it's experimental, I knew it and wrote it in the medical mafia. It is also used for targeted genocides! And that I had read. But in addition, at the time when there were these interviews on the famous meningitis vaccine, some nurses told me they had groups who had taken a special course to vaccinate. They said to themselves: "Wait a minute, we've been vaccinating ever since, we know how to vaccinate!" There was a special vaccine, new, but not everywhere.

We are talking here of nurses who are intelligent women; they were at least in my days, I do not know if they have been vaccinated since ... So they tried to have vaccines analysed. Impossible! The vaccines were under lock and key. You see? At that point, they realised that everyone was not getting the same vaccine. Therefore, some people can choose to administer whatever vaccine they want, they can put in it what they want, nobody knows what's inside. Your doctor does not even know what's inside, yet, he recommends it to you.

You really have to be a fool. I do not know if he was a fool, but if I go to the doctor, I'm a fool. That's important to know. Then it's important to become aware of it, to continue to do business with people that are ignorant, foolish, dishonest and I will not continue ... Didier has described it amply. So I realised that it is possible to destroy populations, races, cities, to select people of skin colour. Africa in particular was flooded and they had AIDS. It is said that they are dying of AIDS. They are dying of AIDS because they have been outrageously vaccinated!

So I refused till today to talk about vaccine. That is what happened and I sent documents to Diane to give presentations and all that. It's only 10 days ago that I got the video of Didier Tarte, the doctor we just saw there. That is so true, I said, "I have nothing more to say. It's all there." So I realised I had to talk about vaccines. I said, "Well, well done." But at the same time that my soul perhaps was pushing me to talk about vaccines against my will, it provided me with an extraordinary tool of an extraordinary man who is Didier Tarte. There are not many, doctors like that. And those who are like that, who want your good, they lose their diplomas, they are written off. Note that when you go to see a medical doctor, you are going to meet someone who is on the payroll of the pharmaceutical industry.

I would like to go a bit beyond. And this conference, the goal is not to give you more information about vaccines. The videos spoke for themselves and everything was in the medical mafia. There are written documents, Didier named them, everything is on the internet, there is no excuse for not knowing what vaccines are today. My goal today is to make you see and share what I experienced when the medical mafia came out, that which I saw at the time because of the reaction of the authorities, that there was more than that again. And it was they who opened my eyes when I saw their reaction. I said that AIDS does not exist, that it was not contagious. That did not bother them. I said that cancer was not a mystery and that there were plenty of effective treatments for it; it did not bother them. It was not that, it was vaccines. Their reaction was so strong in the face of my comments about vaccines, but so violent, and you'll see if you read the legal action they brought against me, the medical mafia trial; it's the vaccines!

And then I realised that there is something else behind vaccines. I realised that I had opened a Pandora's Box, you have that and it may be a snake inside; well, it is of this kind, but the big snake. And you must be aware; there is a programme of the extermination of humanity. The problem is, we have to understand, putting oneself in the place of the authorities, and we will see how it works, putting yourself in the shoes of the people who govern the world. I'm not talking to you about your little crooked politicians we see on TV, the ones we do not see and who lead the world. People's consciousness is rising, people are starting to be more informed and they ask more questions about who they are. And if they find out who they really are, it's catastrophic, not for those people, but for those who manipulate, dominate, and exploit them. And that must not happen!

Each vaccine destroys a part of the brain. The effect on the brain is huge. It's not for nothing. It is to infantilise us and keep us in an animal state. And the more that is done at a younger age, Didier said it a while ago, the greater the disasters caused. We are asked to be vaccinated, to start at birth: 20 vaccines at the age of one year. They received 20 vaccines. It does not make sense. Why? Ask yourself questions! The goal is to reduce the population considerably to 500 million. It's called eugenics. Go see on the internet; eugenics, population reduction, anything, you will find. And to reduce the population to 500 million! There are not many of us who will stay alive. And vaccines are the tool par excellence to do it. They even have DNA vaccines, vaccines with nanoparticles. There are 300 new vaccines that are in production right now. The industry is dying with laughter, they are doing great business. But it's not just for the money. Why does the state pay so much for vaccines to kill us? So we will see together how this mafia works. End of the 1st conference.

The prohibited effective treatments

Excerpt from the lecture delivered by Dr. Ghis on June 01, 2014

Hello. Is there anyone who still believes that AIDS is contagious? Are there any who still believe that AIDS is due to the HIV retrovirus virus? Do you prefer not to answer?

This is the biggest imposture of the century. In terms of crime against humanity, it comes second after vaccines. I summarise and say it clearly: AIDS is not a disease, it is a syndrome; it's thus a set of signs and symptoms common to several diseases. AIDS means acquired immunodeficiency syndrome. So a syndrome, I just told you what it is: Signs and symptoms common to many diseases. What do these diseases have in common? They have immunity, an acquired immune deficiency. That means it's not congenital, we did not come into the world with it. So many diseases can appear, can be manifested when the immune system, the defence system is deficient. That's why we can see tuberculosis, for example, if a patient is tested and the test is positive, they say he has AIDS. But if the test is negative, they say it is tuberculosis; tuberculosis is tuberculosis. It's a huge lie!

HIV has nothing to do and it was made clear by the professor who was there, HIV has never been isolated and demonstrated in the blood of people who have got a test that is said to be positive. Therefore, HIV is not the cause of AIDS. You cannot get HIV; therefore, it is not contagious. Do you see the magnitude, the enormity of the lie? People are told that if they are HIV positive, ... What's then HIV positive? It has also been said in the video, it means that they have anti-HIV antibodies. Yes, but that means they are healthy,
